“Am I a fool?” It is like asking, “Am I stupid, or dumb?”

No one wants to be known as a fool. But the Bible mentions about a fool and what is a foolish person like. Let us find out.

This book is written based on the book of Proverbs, chapter 12

Am I quick to get angry?

A wise person will stay cool when insulted.

Do I ask for advice?

Teacher, what should I do?
The boys want me to fight,
but I don't want to!

Fools don't ask for advice.
They go ahead and get into trouble.

Ouch!
I've got bruises all over my body.

Do I listen to others?

A wise person listens to what they are told.

Yes, mum!

Do I make nasty remarks?

A wise person will speak gently to make others happy.

No present? Don't worry. I'm happy that you came to my party.

Do I look after my belongings?

I'm so happy about this bike.
I'll take care of it.

Fools don't look after the things they own.

I can't be bothered to put it away.
I don't care if it rusts!

Do I blame others?

It wasn't my fault.

Someone else must have done it!

A wise person is honest.

Who nibbled on this cake?

Sorry mum.
It was me.

Am I known as an honest person?

I'm sorry.

I did it by mistake.

Or am I known as a liar who gets into trouble all the time?

If I lie, he'll blame someone else!

I didn't do it!

Do I like showing off?

No one knows as much as I do!

A wise person respects others.

I can learn a lot from others.

A fool doesn't believe in God.

Why should I pray?
There is no God anyway!

While the wise believe in and love God.

I love you Lord, with all of my heart!

Oooh! Am I a fool? I don't want to be a foolish person. But... how can I be wiser?

Trusting and respecting the Lord is the beginning of Wisdom! Psalm 111; 10

(Why don't you make a joyful songs using the following words!)

Wisdom comes from...

Wisdom comes from
knowing God
Knowing God
and loving God

Wisdom comes from
knowing God
